

AthenaPlus

Kick-off meeting
Rome, 18-19 March 2013

Lena Stanley-Clamp and Catriona Sinclair
European Association for Jewish Culture
EAJC

European Association
for Jewish Culture

www.jewishcultureineurope.org

About EAJC

- The mission of EAJC is to promote creativity and access to Jewish culture in Europe.
- The EAJC is the leader of Judaica Europeana, a network of heritage institutions with Jewish content collections.

AthenaPlus

Kick-off meeting
Rome, 18-19 March 2013

European Association
for Jewish Culture

www.jewishcultureineurope.org

Role in AthenaPlus

EAJC will contribute content from diverse and multilingual collections which document Jewish history and culture, including:

- Early and other books
- Manuscripts
- Documents
- Visual art
- Photographs
- Tombstone inscriptions
- Music

Role in AthenaPlus

The EAJC will contribute to

- WP1 Project management and coordination
- WP2 Coordination of content and standards
- WP3 Metadata aggregation and delivery to Europeana
- WP4 Terminologies and semantic enrichment
- WP5 Creative applications for the re-use of cultural resources
- WP7 Awareness and dissemination - 3 newsletters

Contacts:

European Association for Jewish Culture

Lena Stanley-Clamp

lstanley-clamp@jpr.org.uk

Catriona Sinclair

ec.sinclair@btinternet.com

